Celli Peppers

The Celli Peppers have been playing in the South West for over 10 years. It was founded on the premise that if one cello is good (which it is!) then two cellos are twice as good. As for eight cellos.....

We have members from Gloucester in the north to Exeter in the south. Our fortnightly meetings are in Alveston when we democratically discuss the latest programme over coffee and biscuits. Two of our members indulge in a bit of plagiarism taking nice tunes and improving them by adding more cellos (and removing the surplus instruments / voices etc).

Composers are rapidly realising the sonorous opportunities and now produce original pieces for multiple cellos without having to consider other options.

Most of all the Celli Peppers are about having fun playing a wide variety of genres from renaissance to contemporary.

To find out more about the Celli Peppers, where we perform and the annual Festive Cellos (all cellists invited) please email chris@cheesetoasties.com.
